Bike to Übersee, Prien/Chiemsee, perhaps even to Gstadt, Seebruck, Chieming. And take a rest. All over, there are things to see; all over bikers and their bikes will find a place to rest, to have a snack, a” Radler Brotzeit” (biker’s snack). On the next day, perhaps a tour on the Grenzlos bike path through the flat, wide valley of the Tiroler Ache . Your bike will take you over 80km if you follow every bend ; but of course, there is also a shorter way.

On the next day, a bicycle tour around the Chiemsee, following the Chiemsee shore lane. A pause, a swim in one of the bays? Excursions to Chiemsee islands?
